

William Charles Fink - Working Experience:

- 1 Feb 01 Chief Engineer, Global Cockpit Systems. Responsible for all aspects of engineering leadership concerning release, packaging, application, and continuing design support for cockpit product line for BMW, Mercedes Benz, and GM. Significant contribution to eliminating poor business financial performance, while leading organization to execute perfect customer deliverables performance. Provided engineering representation to global cockpit business line senior management team.
- 1 Apr 99 Chief Engineer, Power and Signal Distributions Systems North America for Delphi Packard. Responsible for all aspects of engineering leadership concerning release, packaging, application, and continuing design support for customer General Motors harness product line. Served as engineering member of North American management group responsible for directing North American business segment worth $2 billion in sales.
- 1 Nov 97 Director Engineering Europe, Delphi Packard. Responsible for all aspects of engineering and technical leadership in support of diverse European customer base. Lead implementation of next century electronic architecture for $1.8 billion European power and signal distribution business.
- 1 Mar 96 Director of Technology, Delco Electronics Europe at Wiesbaden Germany HQ. Responsible for all aspects of technology and engineering leadership in support of European customers. Board of Directors responsibility for Mecel AB, a Delphi engineering subsidiary. Delphi Marketing and Technology Strategy Board member, with special responsibility for systems integration of Delco Electronics for Delphi worldwide.
- 1 Nov 94 Vice President and Director of Alliance Development, Delco Electronics Asia Pacific, Tokyo office. Responsible for developing and implementing automotive electronics alliance opportunities with Japanese companies. Scope of business activities included negotiating supply contracts, negotiating joint venture agreements, and exploring equity position opportunities for serving Japanese domestic and transplant customers with objective to double current market opportunities through synergistic collaboration with leading Japanese supply firms.
- 1 Aug 93 Vice President & Director of Engineering, Delco Electronics Asia Pacific. Startup leader for office and operations to establish Overseas Headquarters in Singapore. Leadership responsibility for all engineering and program management support for Asian customers. Established program management process. Defined and implemented regional application design center strategy. Managed global engineering interaction supporting U.S. $200 million sales of automotive electronics.
- 1 Jan 91 Managing Director, GM Singapore Pte. Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Delco Electronics. Overall leadership responsibility for U.S.$400 million manufacturing facility. Led company to accomplish superior performance and improvements.